Sen. Prosper Announces Winners of First Annual Art Competition

Paqtnkek, NS – Sen. PJ Prosper held the first annual art competition that saw entrants from across Mi'kma'ki participate. The winner of the junior category (Grades K to 7) received $100 and will be featured on the Senator's Christmas card, while the winner of the senior category (Grades 8-12) received $100 and will be featured on the cover of the Senator's annual progress report.

As the Senator intends to print Christmas cards and publish a progress report annually, the art contest will also be a recurring event.

This year's winners are:

Junior Category: "Apple Tree in the Wind" – Jax, age 11, Annapolis Valley First Nation

Senior Category: "Guiding Light" – Skyla, age 14, Membertou First Nation
